GLANCE AT SOME OF THE DELEGATES TO THE REBEL PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune thus describes some of the delegates to the rebel Philadelphia Convention He says

It is suggestive and instructive to pass through the corridors of the hotels and see the unique conglomeration of people Thurlow Weed buried in a rakish gray coat and smoking that perpetual cigar seems to float and drift through the crowd melting along in the smooth oily way now whispering in the ear of some reluctant delegate now endeavoring to magnetize a hungry expectant Republican He has Gov Bigler in his grasp, and transfixes that ponderous Pennsylvania Bunsby with his glittering eye ever smoking that perpetual cigar If Weed is the Presence Blair is the Omnipresence nervous quick audacious busy and evidently the managing man Weed may drive his wagon load of rich men and Richmond may swear by all the saints that the thing's set and it's got to be did, and the gushing Mr Randall his face red and glowing as though he were in the condition of being continually ashamed of himself may pull and worry but the managing man of this show is the busy Mr B who talks to you in a decided rasping voice as though he were disagreeably in earnest Garret Davis ghastly and voluble is very silent and makes no speeches The conspicuous McDougall is in that condition of enthusiasm which makes you dread to shake hands with him California will rejoice to know that the renowned Senator still believes in "Aryjonsinconshushenunionandnonigger" Mr Vallandigham, the uninvited guest who finds no room and no disposition to make room is lusty and bold and makes all kind of warlike speeches Sly Val! Always on the top heap and sublime in the facility of getting himself talked about Henry Clay Deane of Iowa is here wearing the identical stockings that he wore in 1858 and conspicuous among the great unwashed We have the radiant Cornell Jewett who looks like a daisy and gives you a general impression of velvet and jewelry and night blooming cereus George Francis Train has a large Irish following and tells the delegates confident ally of the millions that his Nebraska speculations bring him Then we have the Washington crowd, who represent the Kitchen Cabinet Mr Hanscom of the Republican, who looks serious and weighty Johnny Coyle shaking hands with everybody and overflowing with smiles—butterfly smiles that suggest the jolliest lot of Presidential clover Wendell even more radiant with the hopes of public printing the placid Jonah Hoover, who seems to be at home with his Rebel friends and others of the Washington crowd who follow Andrew Johnson as the five thousand did our Saviour when he gave them loaves and fishes No one has seen Tom Florence but it is rumored he remains with the President to bring on the final instructions

We look in vain for Winthrop, or Ewing or Rives or Stephens We see no conspicuously national men in the whole crowd nothing but gab by politicians, who follow the divinity of Loaf and Fish—eager hungry, coarse, unscrupulous politicians, who came to this market to supply the new demand, and will go to another when the demand ceases Even the wagon load of wealthy persons that Thurlow promised, has broken down Where is Mr Vanderbilt or Mr Stewart? and has anybody seen Leonard W Jerome? Is it possible that Thurlow has sold short and cannot deliver? Is there nothing but this Jack Falstaff of country recruits? God help the country when its salvation depends upon this shabby crowd of hungry and mercenary adventurers! with very few exceptions, of such men this crowd at the Continental is composed

A REMINISCENCE.—California, after she had formed a State Government and elected and sent on her representatives, was kept out of Congress eight months Did she call Congress usurpers? Did she groan at her degradation, and say the Union was at an end? But she had never been in, no, nor had she gone out, nor made war to destroy the nation Her citizens were not perjured traitors, conquered by hard fighting and held at the will of the victors But they had committed a crime, in the estimation of the cotton and wool lords of the South, a thousand fold more heinous—they had adopted a free Constitution, had stolen away no man's liberty, they did not believe that the Declaration of Independence was a "rhetorical flourish," and that "slavery was the chief corner stone" of a free republic They had not put their hands to a constitutional declaration that man might be the property of man Nobody had then learned the potency of a knock at the door of Congress, that such a knock unanswered demolished the legitimacy of Congress and broke the Government to atoms Her not having been in the Congress before, did not alter the principle She was a State as much a moment before her members were admitted as she was a moment after And she had been a State for nearly a year, and a State in the Union, and before that she had been in the Union as a part of the territory of the United States She had come into the Union by force of arms, by legitimate conquest, just as ten States are now in the Union. And she was not kept out all these months because she was turbulent and rebellious and needed any conditions precedent On the contrary, her coming in was conditioned upon matters in which she had not the slightest control She was kept out as trading capital to buy votes for the infamous "Fugitive Slave Law" and the repeal of the Missouri Compromise The slave power must not be overbalanced The unholy alliance between right and wrong must not be disturbed, the men who paid wages for labor must not be stronger in the Government than those who did not This was a perfectly arbitrary ruling of Congress It lay entirely within the law of the will of the majority, and only there If Congress could then at its pleasure exclude peaceful, loyal subjects for no reason that they could change or remedy by their conduct, how much more may it refuse rancorous venomous traitors who will not put away their hatred and injustice nor agree to behave themselves properly when admitted?—Sacramento Bee

A MANIAC'S DEATH.—Mrs Farnsworth aged about 25 years and the mother of three children the youngest about three months old was recently sent to our county poor farm, by the overseer of the poor of Woodstock township She had been found in the woods naked, a raving maniac After being in the poor house a short time, she took a seat on the porch when a kitten coming by, she seized it by the neck with one hand and deliberately tore out its eyes Soon after she killed an old cat in the same manner and then ran after one of Mr Austin's little children with a similar intent undoubtedly, but the screams of the child brought it timely assistance She was then locked up in one of the rooms of the house, but managed to get out having torn off every shred of her clothing A room was prepared by nailing up the windows and doors with strong bars but she made her escape from this also and upon being put back would throw herself headforemost against the doors and walls of the room and tear up her bed and clothing Manacles and a straight jacket were then placed upon her and the floor of her room covered to the depth of a foot or more with straw but she continued to throw herself against the walls and chimney and would also scrape the straw from the floor and springing up light down on her head and shoulders Once or twice a dose of morphine was given her causing her to sleep several hours but she would wake up as wild as ever Finally on Wednesday after noon after striking her head against the door she was heard to make a singular moaning noise and on entering her room she was found gasping her last with the blood oozing from her mouth and nostrils Her head and entire body it was found while being prepared for burial were black with bruises and her head beaten to a jelly. She resided near Crooked creek above Ripley and her insanity is attributable to domestic infelicity She is said to have been a very handsome woman —Schuyler (Ill) Citizen

WASHINGTON TERRITORY GRANTS.—All donation claims in Washington Territory reported for patent have been granted excepting a few which are suspended for causes pointed out by the Register and Receiver at the local land offices These are however in course of correction A similar report is made for Oregon What cases are now reported from Oregon City and Roseburg are being arranged

GOVERNOR COX OF OHIO ON "MY POLICY."—Last winter certain indications led us to believe that Governor Cox of Ohio had taken too much stock in my policy Indeed the Governor did go very much further than he had any business to venture but he has got better of the disease and now convinced either of the error of his ways or of the unpopularity of the President's treachery he has declared himself in favor of the Constitutional Amendments and against the objects of the Philadelphia Convention Good for Cox

ARMY CHANGES—SICKLES TO SUCCEED ROSECRANS.—Gen Wm S Rosecrans Brigadier General in the regular army, having tendered his resignation Major General Daniel E Sickles United States volunteers it is understood under the late order, will be nominated to the vacancy Thomas C Pitcher, Major of the 16th Infantry and Brigadier General of volunteers and Brig Gen J C Robinson are to be appointed Colonels of regiments in the Veteran Reserve Corps under the new organization

NATURE OF THE BEASTS.—The Cincinnati Commercial says "The rebel element will be natural when they happen to get drunk The Democratic tone will show itself on those occasions For instance at a meeting lately held at Shelbyville one of the 'unwashed' gave an enthusiastic cheer for Breckinridge which was responded to by the crowd with much enthusiasm Another yelled out, 'Lincoln is dead and in h—ll G—d d—n him' This was also rapturously applauded

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 18, 1866.

The Caucus and the Result.

In the caucus of the Union members of the Legislature held last evening, Governor Gibbs received 21 votes and Mr. Mitchell 15, with three scattering. Governor Gibbs has, therefore, a clear majority of the Union votes in the Legislature.

The Indian Troubles.

Affairs in Eastern Oregon are in a deplorable condition. It is literally true that there is no security for life or property east of the Cascade mountains. Indian marauders are there doing their fiendish work without interruption and without control. The aggregate of murders which have been perpetrated in that section during the last year can never be known. Business is broken up, communication between different portions of the country is interrupted, and all the interests of that part of the State are suffering from the general feeling of insecurity that everywhere prevails. Nor is there an immediate prospect of a change for the better. On the contrary, the situation there is growing worse and worse. The Indians have it all their own way. No places except the military camps and the most populous towns are safe against their incursions. And even before these they not unfrequently appear, and after making a large haul of stock and other booty, retire to their hiding places, to reappear where least expected to plunder and to kill. We suppose it is true that there are not soldiers enough in that region for its protection; yet why are there not more? This sort of thing has been going on for two full years. Ample time has elapsed for the Government to take cognizance of it, and provide a remedy. Yet relief seems as far off as ever.

If the General Government does not intend to protect our State, the State must protect itself. Eastern Oregon cannot be abandoned. Nor ought the people in those exposed settlements be left entirely to their own resources in their struggles to maintain a lodgment in that rich portion of the State. We do not know whether the Legislature will be able to devise any means for their assistance; but if such a thing is possible it should be done. It will be months before the General Government will do anything, if it does it at all. It is the fashion to throw the blame of all this on General Halleck. This may or may not be just. Nothing is easier than censure; yet if the truth must be told, there are few people who expect much of the hero of Beauregard's escape from Corinth. But wherever the fault may lie, it is certain that Eastern Oregon has not one-fourth enough soldiers. It is easy to preach extermination, but the first consideration should be to get the men to do the business. We make no appeal to the military authorities,—convinced of the utter uselessness of doing so. The question is, shall the State help itself out of these difficulties, or endure them endlessly, and without hope of remedy?

That Letter from a Judge of the Supreme Court in Favor of the late Confederate States.

Not long since the Herald published a letter on the status of the late Confederate States, which it assured its readers was from the pen of Judge Curtis, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Albany Confederate, in its last issue, publishes a portion of the same letter and also attributes its authorship to Judge Curtis of the Supreme Court of the United States. The letter inclines to the rebel view of the situation—that nothing has happened during the war to affect the political condition or relations with the Government of the States engaged in rebellion, and that therefore these "wayward sisters" are entitled to come in and help govern the country they once left and attempted to destroy, without question or condition.

It may be remarked that if a Judge of the Supreme Court had written a letter on the other side of this question, these virtuous sheets would have been horrified beyond expression, and would have bewailed the degeneracy of these "Abolition" times, when the Judiciary of the Supreme Court were not above stooping from their high position to write and publish partisan letters upon political questions. "But the case being altered, that quite alters the case."

But the fact is, our ignorant cotemporaries are mistaken on one point very essential to their case. Mr. Curtis is not upon the Supreme Bench, and so this attempt to bolster up their pet theory of rebel rights by using the name of a Justice of the Supreme Court, is about as effectual as was Mrs. Nickleby's endeavor to settle a controversy on a subject of the highest importance by offering a bit of pudding as a compromise.

There are many persons of some note in the United States who bear the name of Curtis. The author of this letter, is, we believe, Mr. Benjamin R. Curtis, who was once upon the Supreme Bench, but who is now a private citizen of Massachusetts, and as an antique specimen of a "Silver Grey Whig" was a delegate to the crumb-hunters' late Convention. He first went upon the Bench in 1851, as a successor of Levi Woodbury, receiving his appointment, as we believe, from Mr. Fillmore. He occupied the seat until 1856, and participated in the Dred Scott case, when he resigned—as was said at the time, on account of the disgust excited by that decision.

In his dissenting opinion in that case he anticipated and adjudged to death the Democratic dogma of to-day about this being a "white man's Government," and maintained that a person of African descent could be a citizen of the United States.

Any more letters from Judges of the Supreme Court in favor of rebel rights? While waiting for a reply, we would advise caution against mistakes hereafter.

The New York Independent speaks of the National Intelligencer as "a paper so near the President that it daily smells his breath."

A man named Charles Saol lately hung himself in his cabin at Fort Yale, British Columbia.

Millmen are in demand at Puget Sound. At Port Madison several vessels are waiting for cargoes of lumber.

LETTER FROM GENERAL BARLOW.—The following short but expressive letter from General Francis C. Barlow, New York Secretary of State, will be read with interest. Like all true soldiers, General Barlow refuses to follow "strange gods" or indorse "my policy." He says:

> ALBANY, August 14, 1866.
> George W. Demers—My Dear Sir—The impression that I am in favor of the Philadelphia Convention seems to be general, and I am sorry to hear that you have shared in it.
> Let me assure you that you are wholly mistaken, and that I am wholly opposed to the whole movement, and to the principles laid down in the call for the Convention.
> There are few men in this State who are more entirely opposed to the acts and policy of the President and the so-called conservatives.
> I wish you would make my position on these questions known whenever you have an opportunity to do so.
> FRANCIS C. BARLOW.

IDAHO ELECTION.—The following is the official vote by counties for Delegate to Congress:

COUNTY.	HOLBROOK.	KIRKPATRICK.
Idaho	210	190
Nez Perce	155	230
Oneida	38	131
Owyhee	675	550
Shoshone	27	40
Alturas	169	160
Ada	389	321
Boise	1987	1,298
	3,641	2,923
Holbrook's majority	718.

These figures show a great decrease in the Democratic majority since 1864.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 17.

Cholera Abated in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—Cholera has ceased to be epidemic, in fact, but five cases were reported for the 24 hours ending at noon to-day. The Mayor and board of health have issued a proclamation declaring cholera, as epidemic, at an end. Business is improving.

New Tariff to be Proposed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Secretary McCulloch directs David A. Wells, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to prepare a draft for a new tariff to be submitted to Congress next winter, with all the information pertaining to the workings of the present law. Wells will, therefore, early open an office in New York, to consult the sentiments of mercantile people.

Settlement of Public Lands.

The returns received at the land office from various district land offices in the new States and Territories exhibit a rapid and steady increase in the sales of public lands, and in the entries for settlement under the homestead law. These returns show that the tide of emigration is setting westward.

A Remarkable Campaign Document Forthcoming.

The National Republican Committee propose circulating a report of the late excursion of the President, as a campaign document. The report contains the most remarkable and startling revelations of policy ever uttered by a President.

The Disaster at Johnstown, Pa.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Thirteen lives were lost by the fall of the bridge at Johnstown, Pa., yesterday, and nearly 100 persons were injured. Some of them are so badly hurt they cannot recover.

Illness of Seward—Another Rebuff for "Moses."

Secretary Seward was dangerously ill last night, and remains at Harrisburg.

The Baltimore City Council last evening refused to tender the hospitalities of the city to the President, or to participate in the reception this evening on the ground that he is on a political stumping tour.

Fenian Excitement.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The Herald's Canada correspondent says there is no abatement in the excitement concerning the Fenians. It is also said that the Canadians are organizing squads to make a raid upon the American border towns in revenge for the Fenian raid upon Canada. There is great activity at the Fenian headquarters under Stephens. Important movements may, it is said, be soon expected.

The Johnstown Tragedy.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The following are further particulars of the shocking accident at Johnstown, Pa., where 500 people fell through a platform. The number of killed is placed at seventeen and the wounded at 307. The great majority of wounded have fractured limbs and there will be probably fifty amputations. President Johnson sent five hundred dollars for the relief of the sufferers. Gen. Geary sent two hundred dollars, and the Cambria Iron Company subscribed one thousand dollars. The platform was an old bridge over a dry canal and was strong enough for ordinary purposes, but when crowded by people to see the President who stopped at the depot near by it broke down. The village, which contains 1,700 inhabitants, is covered with a pall of gloom. Surgeons had been sent from Pittsburg and all the neighboring country.

Fire at Newbern, N. C.

NEWBERN, N. C., Sept. 16.—A fire broke out near the corner of Broad and Middle streets this morning and destroyed nearly two squares between Broad and Pollock streets, from Middle street, burning about 50 buildings. The Times estimates the loss at $200,000. The Commercial thinks it will reach $500,000 with less than 175,000 insurance.

Billiard Match.

NEW YORK, Sept 15.—The great billiard tournament is drawing to a close. Dow, the Montreal player, has won six out of seven games, securing to himself the title of champion of the champions and the golden cue.

Mexican News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Mr. Romero, the Mexican Minister has received dispatches to-day from Vera Cruz, the 31st of August. They contain the following news: The city of San Luis Potosi has been occupied by national troops. The city of Juanites in the State of Vera Cruz has been captured by the Liberals. The three hundred Austrians who garrisoned it having surrendered. It was rumored at Vera Cruz that Guadalajara has been taken by the Republican forces, but this rumor needs confirmation. The Liberals left Vera Cruz on the night of the 29th ult. and captured eleven French soldiers. Maximilian had issued a decree for the purpose of collecting fifteen per cent. of the value of the confiscated national Church property. The tax is more than can be paid and consequently occasioned much dissatisfaction against the author of the decree in places subject to French rule. The dispatches state that the national forces were everywhere increasing and that many of the Imperialists were going over to the Liberals.

NEWS BY ATLANTIC CABLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The following are the Tribune's special dispatches:

VIENNA, Sept. 13.—We are on the verge of another war, which threatens to equal in extent that just ended. Austria shows bad faith in the negotiations with Italy and has made immoderate demands to which Italy will not submit. Austria has overcharged the debt of Venetia and withholds Venetian property which she is bound to transfer.

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Prussia has emphatically notified Austria that she will not suffer Italy and her army to be insulted and defrauded, and if Austria persists in her present course, war must follow.

PRAGUE, Sept. 14.—The homeward march of the Prussian troops has been peremptorily arrested, and the diminishing of the entire army stopped.

DRESDEN, Sept. 14.—Everything looks like war. There is no reply from Austria to the notification of Prussia. It is but a question of hours whether the troops will not be again put in motion for Vienna.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Various diplomatic changes are considered imminent in Paris. The dismissal of Drouyn de l'Huys was the subject of much comment, and it was believed it would conduce to the preservation of peace.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—A fire broke out last evening on the upper floor of the two-story building, Nos. 406 and 408, Battery street, near Clay, occupied by Newman Bros., as importers of wood and willow ware. In half an hour the flames were subdued, but not before some eight or ten thousand dollars' worth of property had been ruined by the two antagonistic elements. The origin of the fire is not known, but the Fire Marshal is vigorously at work to ascertain its origin, and whether it was through accident or design. The property was insured for $7,000.

Capt. Nichols, of the ship Reunion, accused of maltreating his crew on her late voyage from New York, was acquitted of the charge preferred against him in the U. S. District Court on Saturday afternoon. The evidence was very conflicting throughout, and in the opinion of His Honor, Judge Hoffman, insufficient to justify him in convicting the defendant of the charges preferred against him. Accordingly, the Captain was released from custody.

The Chile-American residents yesterday celebrated the anniversary of Chilean independence in a patriotic manner. They fired a national salute at daybreak and closed the ceremonies of the day by holding a meeting at Dashaway Hall, at which speeches were made and great enthusiasm prevailed.

Major-General Halleck has been elected President of a newly organized association of Mexican war veterans. He accepted the proffered honor, but declined making a speech, saying, humorously, that the rule in the United States military service required dismissal of any officer who made a speech exceeding three sentences.

Advices from Prescott are to the 3d; from La Paz to the 6th inst. The election for delegate to Congress took place on the 5th. In La Paz, which is the only place from which returns had been received, Col. C. D. Poston received 78 votes, S. Adams 31, and Col. E. S. Bashford 4. There had been heavy rains throughout the Territory. The mining news unimportant. Large quantities of copper were awaiting an opportunity of shipment at Williamsford, and several tons of metal had been smelting at a cost which it is said will pay 100 per cent on cost of production.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—In the case of the people of the State of California against B. S. Mayfield and M. Overton, charged by the grand jury of Los Angeles county at last May term of crime of murder, by taking the life of Mason, the county court immediately transmitted the indictment to the district court, when the trial of Mayfield took place. The witnesses for the prosecution were Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, the killing having taken place in their house. The jury found defendant guilty of murder in the first degree. The counsel for the defense asked for a new trial which was refused by Judge De LaGuerra. The prisoner was sentenced to be hanged in August. On application to supreme court a stay of proceedings was granted, and the matter is yet pending.

Overton's case was not reached at the last term.

An affray took place in our city on Thursday last between one of the members of the bar and a German citizen, Mr. Limberger, alias Flying Dutchman, resulting in the shooting of Limberger through the thighs. It is uncertain yet whether he will recover. The same day a man named Westley Scarf was killed in a canyon a few miles from the city. The body had two bullet holes through the breast, one through the side, and an arrow sticking in the back. No trace of the murderers has been found, but suspicion attaches to a man who went with Scarf to hunt bee-trees. He says that after they found a bee-tree, he left Scarf and went to a house a few miles off to get vessels to put the honey in, and that Scarf was killed while he was absent.

The overland stages run daily below Los Angeles and San Jose.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—In the U. S. Circuit Court to-day, the motion to remand action in the case of Jno. McCall vs. Gen. Irwin, McDowell and Capt. Douglass, for false imprisonment, to the State Court, was denied.

The British brig Ann Anderson, from Yokohama, reported last evening, arrived yesterday.

Judge Dwinelle to-day decided an important point of law in the case of A. D. Greenwood vs. Mark L. McDonald et al. The suit was brought to recover on a promissory note made by McDonald to D. M. W. Seaton and Phœbe Seaton, executor and executrix of the estate of Geo. W. Seaton deceased, and endorsed by them to the plaintiff. The defendants demurred to the complaint on the ground that they, the defendants, had no right to transfer the note, except by an order of the Probate Court. The Court held that the note was the personal property of the executor and executrix, and they had a right to transfer it.

Andrew M. Jackson, the mulatto wretch who married a little white girl but eleven years of age, and then destroyed the sight of her eye by his brutality, was this morning sentenced by Judge Cowles to five years imprisonment in the State Prison for mayhem. He is now serving out a year in the county jail for assault and battery, and will be taken over to San Quentin on the 11th of April next, when his present term expires and the long one commences.

Martin Geetz, John Mason and Andrew Florenz, insolvent debtors, were discharged from their liabilities to-day, by a decree of the county court.

The health officer's statement for the week ending September 15th, shows the total number of deaths from all causes and all ages to be 48.

Michael Welch was brought before commissioner Sullivan to-day, on two charges of illicit whisky distilling, one for manufacturing liquors without having paid special tax, and the other for carrying on the business of distilling in a dwelling house.

R. C. Brooks, of the New York distillery, Post street, was also arrested under the new internal revenue law. Another charge against John Peterson and R. C. Brooks, for forging U. S. revenue inspector's brands, was preferred, and the prisoners held to bail before the United States commissioner. The several properties have been seized by the revenue department for the benefit of the United States.

An order has been issued by Gen. Halleck relative to the expected arrival of Queen Emma, which declares that should the steamer carrying her Majesty enter this harbor between sunrise and sunset, the commanding officer at Fort Point will fire the customary salute of twenty-one guns.

A fire broke out this morning about 3 o'clock in a brick building belonging to the Mission Woolen Mills. It was used for storing wool which had been cleansed, dyed and picked, preparatory to spinning, and also contained the picking machinery of the mills. It is as yet impossible to estimate the amount of damage with any degree of accuracy. There was about 45,000 pounds of fine wool in the building ready for the spinner, of which probably one-half will be saved in a damaged condition. The entire wood work of the building is destroyed, as well as the belting and shafting and picking machines are badly injured. The latter can be repaired so as to be used temporarily until new machinery can be had. The origin of the fire remains a mystery. The loss is amply covered by insurance, all the city and many of the foreign insurance companies having policies on the property. The superintendent of the mills says that repairs will be made and manufacturing resumed as usual within ten days. At the present time the demand for goods is very active. The mills have been running steadily for some weeks back, and intend manufacturing goods for exhibition at At the world's fair at Paris in 1867, competing for premiums on various styles of woolen goods as well as for blankets. It is very gratifying to the people of the State that the fire this morning was speedily extinguished and with so little injury to the machinery of the mills. The loss of any such industrial enterprise is a public calamity, and in the case of the destruction of these mills over 400 operatives would have been thrown out of employment. The loss at a rough estimate is probably $50,000.

Markets.

Flour—Market is quiet and confined to the usual jobbing sales.

Wheat—Sales choice milling at $1 47½; fair $1 42½ ₩ 100lbs.

Barley—Choice brewing, old crop, ordinary feed 80c ₩ 100lbs.

Oats—Good, for export, $1 45 ₩ 100lbs.

The price of gold in New York on Saturday was 144⅞.

Legal tenders are dull at 71½c buying, and 72c selling.

Mining stocks are unusually active for Monday. Crown point was sold for $890, an advance of $70 since the 11th. From the 14th, Chollar-Potosi declined $10, and Imperial, $3. From the Board of Saturday, Yellow Jacket advanced $15 50; Savage $15, and Ophir, $1. Belcher declined $2 50.

There were sales of $50,000 in legal tenders at 71¾@72. The following changes have been made in the rates of exchange for the steamer to-morrow: currency drafts, 38c; premium on gold and telegraphic transfers, 3½ per cent.

Shipping.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, Sept. 16.—The steamer Active, with eighty passengers, left here yesterday at six P. M. for San Francisco.

The British ship Royal arrived Friday evening, 130 days from London, with a cargo of Government stores and general merchandise.

News received here by the last mail from England, reports the passage of the bill for uniting this Colony with British Columbia and the appointment of Governor Seymour to the Governorship of both Colonies.

STATE ITEMS.

Mr. Lecey, member of the House from Clackamas, we learn, is lying seriously ill of typhoid fever. He will probably not be able to resume his place for many days.

Mr. C. F. Beatty of Clackamas county has been invited by the State Agricultural Society to deliver the Annual Address at the State Fair next month. Mr. B. accepts the invitation.

The Agriculturist has some remarks on the subject of housing cattle during our Oregon winters, which we transcribe: We have constantly urged upon the farmers the importance of providing shelter for their animals during the long, depleting rainy season, believing the want of protection from the winter storms to be the real cause of the horned cattle of this State being inferior in size to what they were several years ago. The inability of our cattle growers to shelter their stock, has undoubtedly decreased the wealth of the State many thousands of dollars, very probably by a larger sum than it would take to erect the requisite amount of shelter.

From the Agriculturist we learn that there will be six days racing at Smiley's track, four miles below Salem, during the State Fair. The following purses are to be offered: Monday, Oct 15—The sweepstakes race agreed upon by Messrs. Basket, Bybee, and others in 1865. If run $100 added. Same day, purse of $300 for square trotting stallions, mile heats, 3 in 5. Tuesday, 16th—Purse of $100 for all ages, single mile. Same day, 440 yard race, purse of $50. Wednesday, 17th—Running, mile heats, 2 in 3, for all ages, $150. Same day, trotting, 3 in 5, free to all, $100. Thursday, 18th—Purse for Rifleman colts, mile heats, 2 in 3, $150. Same day, $50 for pacers, 2 in 3. Friday, 19th—Purse of $150 for all running horses, all ages, mile heats, 2 in 3. Same day, $50 for trotting horses, mile heats, 2 in 3, that never have beaten 3 minutes. Saturday, 20th—Purse of $300 for running horses, all ages, mile heats, 3 in 5. The track is said to be in splendid condition, and the use of it is freely extended for training purposes. All trotting and pacing horses to go to harness. Ten per cent. entrance—3 to enter, and 3 to start. The California State rules govern the track and races. We learn that quite a number of horses are training for these races.

FROM IDAHO.

The following is taken from the Idaho World of the 8th inst.:

The long contemplated project of a bed-rock flume in Moore's creek, seems about to be realized. Several energetic business men are going into the work. A survey has already been completed by Messrs. S. L. Haskell and C. B. Fairbanks, commencing at a point 300 rods below the bridge opposite the Cold Spring Ranch, and running up to a point opposite California gulch—being a distance of 1830 rods. It has a fall of 260 feet, or a fraction over two inches to the rod. The line of the flume will be considerably shorter, which will increase the grade. The flume will have about three inches fall to the rod, with sufficient dump to run everything clear.

The East Hill Tunnel Company have commenced operation, and are very sanguine of success. The tunnel starts from Bear Run, about a half mile above the World office, and it is being run in a southeasterly direction to strike beneath the dividing ridge. On a visit to the tunnel on Wednesday, we found it already into the hill about forty feet. The work is being pushed forward day and night, and we shall soon see what the mountain will bring forth. Mr. Middleton is interested in the tunnel, and at work upon it actively. The tunnel is a fine specimen of that character of work. It is under the superintendence of Mr. Jule.

THE UNION PARTY.—The Mobile (Alabama) Nationalist, gives the following résumé of the Union party of the country:

The personnel of the Republican party is remarkable. In the North it comprises nineteen-twentieths of the members of all Protestant churches excepting the Episcopalians, and a large majority of the members of that denomination; almost the entire membership of all the moral or benevolent associations; four-fifths of all literati, professional men, teachers, &c.; three-fourths of the returned soldiers; a large proportion of the prominent business men—especially miners, manufacturers and bankers—and certainly a decided majority of the farming population. Ever since its formation this party has been growing with amazing rapidity, and its accessions have been principally from the above classes, which do not change easily, until now it controls every Northern State, including Missouri.

The Copperhead papers in the North sneer at this party, and call it "radical," "fanatical," and "rump."

TORN BY A BEAR.—The Helena (Montana) Republican of August 25th says; About ten days ago Jones, of the firm of Jones, Sprague & Co., was hunting near the mouth of Sun river, and after having killed three grizzlies, wounded a fourth. The latter turned upon him and mangled him badly. Jones has been taken to Fort Benton, where he is receiving every attention, and is as comfortable as could be expected.

Recently the Mayor of Washington—a satrap of the Administration—sent a squad of policemen to eject a vast gathering of Fenians, who had assembled at the Fair Building, to listen to an address by President Roberts. When Congress heard of the outrage, a resolution was immediately passed granting the use of the building to the Fenians whenever wanted by them.

MECHANICAL TINKERING cannot arrest the decomposition of the teeth. Nothing will do this but that pure disinfectant and preservative which, under the name of Sozodont, has become a staple of the toilet throughout the world.

NOTA BENE.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 69 First Street, continue to attract public attention to their MAGNIFICENT PHOTOGRAPHS, CARTES DE VISITE, SUN PEARLS, ENAMELED CARD PICTURES, etc. The truth is, this is the only GALLERY where you can get the genuine production of the art. This firm have lately received from New York some beautiful stereoscopic views of the White Mountains and vicinity.

THE THREATENING ASPECT OF the weather imperatively demands that, to avoid discomfort from the wet season now rapidly advancing, every one should go to the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET, and provide themselves with a suit of that SUPERB THICK CLOTHING which KOHN & FISHEL brought on and are constantly receiving, EXPRESSLY FOR THIS CLIMATE. And do not forget to examine their EXTENSIVE STOCK of extra fine and heavy BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine CATHOLICON does not contain one particle of calomel or mercury, and cases of Female Complaints which require other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, Headache, Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Difficulties connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON

Is a most successful remedy for Gravel and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy, the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of functional and general health from budding womanhood to the turn of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

REDINGTON & CO., Sole Agents,
se3d1m2p 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

THE INDICATIONS are that we are to have a pleasant season and clear weather for a few weeks, and all should bear in mind that BUCHTEL is now taking those inimitable SUN PEARLS that everybody admires so much, and also the most BEAUTIFUL PHOTOGRAPHS. COME ALWAYS IN THE FORENOON, and examine the specimens. Experience, material, and close business habits need no bombast. se1ed0t

INDIAN CALL—THE CANYON CITY STAGE.—A few days since Dalles ... reported that it would soon be necessary to suspend mail service on the Canyon City route in consequence of Indian troubles unless something was done to protect the route. By Mr Edward Weeks, of Canyon City, who arrived by the Wilson G. Hunt on Saturday evening, we have particulars of a further raid and destruction of property on that route and which may also ... small loss of life. It appears that on the morning of Thursday last the stage was attacked by Indians within a few miles of Camp Watson while en route for Canyon City from the Dalles. The only men with the stage were Mr Paige, Wells Fargo & Co's messenger and the driver Mr Wheeler. The place selected for the attack was ... hill, steep grade, and the hour six o'clock ... At the first fire the driver was shot through the cheeks, the ball entering on the right side, destroying a portion of the tongue and injuring the roof of the mouth, passing out at the left cheek. Notwithstanding the serious nature of the wounds Mr Wheeler had received, he started to unhitch the lead horses, while Mr Paige kept the Indians back by using his Henry rifle. As quick as the horses were loosened from the team each mounted an animal and left the coach and wheel ... to the savages by whom they had been surrounded. Thus mounted the two men were pursued by the Indians, and how hard they were obliged to struggle to save their own lives is shown in the subsequent chapter. Mr Paige has become known as the hero of many battles, having been called upon frequently to fight Indians, while in the discharge of his duty in the upper country as messenger but whether he was ever placed in such close quarters before we are not informed. While he and the wounded Mr Wheeler were doing their utmost to get away the horse Mr. Paige was riding was shot from under him but being wounded only, quickly recovered and put off, leaving Mr Paige on foot. The wounded horse upon overtaking Mr. Wheeler caused that gentleman to look around, which was the first intimation he had of the unfortunate position of Mr. Paige and catching the escaped horse he led him back to Mr Paige whom he found very ... after having fought the red devils alone, and on foot for nearly three miles. As quick as possible Mr Paige remounted and the two men again started on, in the chase for their lives, followed for two or three miles farther before their pursuers abandoned the purposes of destruction which they entertained. Upon reaching a place of safety it was found that the clothing of Mr Paige was fairly riddled with bullets and arrows, but as strange as it may appear he was unharmed. The wound of Mr Wheeler ... very dangerous, and the excitement and fatigue of the chase which followed his being wounded, ... seriously, unless his case receives the very best of medical treatment. Mr Paige has won for himself a good amount of praise, for the good use he made of his ... When he and his comrade arrived at a safe place, it was found that he had used his last cartridge. The stage was freighted with apples, and the treasure box contained but about $150 coin for parties at Canyon City.

CLATSOP SPORTING.—Mr A Kinney of this city is sending to his friends evidences of his enjoyment at Clatsop in the shape of heavy game. Three large cougars and two or three elk arrived by the steamer John H. Couch on Saturday evening. The cougars were captured at the old fish trap by Mr Kinney and Mr Latta. Mr Buchtel is preparing them in a manner which will provide for their future admiration by all who have a taste for rare specimens such as they are in natural history.

AUCTION SALES.—The regular sale at auction this morning by Mr Kilbourn will be worth attending. The consignments of tobacco cigars etc. will be closed out besides, a valuable lot of furniture will be disposed of.

LOYAL DELEGATES.—Four of the delegates from Louisiana to the Johnson Soup Convention at Philadelphia were rare specimens of loyalty. The most prominent name in the list is that of Dick Taylor, the notorious rebel General who fought to the last to destroy the Union and desires its restoration as ardently as he desires the cholera morbus. He is followed by Hon Alex Bouton, who presided over the Convention which passed the Secession Ordinance of Louisiana, and whose presence at Philadelphia will be analogous to that of a murderer in the jury of inquest upon the body of his victim. A third name is that of Duncan F Kenner, at one period a member of the rebel Congress, and, as loyal as Lucifer was pious. Another rebel officer is found in the person of H M Spofford Provost Marshal General of New Orleans, under the brilliant soldier, Mansfield Lovell.

RETURNED FROM MOUNT BAKER.—Mr E T Coleman one of the party who recently succeeded in nearly reaching the summit of Mount Baker, returned in a canoe from Bellingham Bay. Mr Coleman says that they attained a point about 50 feet from the highest pinnacle which they found to be in the form of a dome. An attempt would have been made to reach the apex by a circuitous route, but provisions ran short, and some of the party were pressed for time, they therefore retraced their steps though with the determination to renew the attempt next year if possible. The weather was favorable for the undertaking and it was not unpleasantly cold in the icy regions. The crater was passed about half a mile to the right, but they were unable from their position to inspect it. The sulphuric vapor emitted was, however quite discernible to their olfactory senses.—Victoria Colonist

ASTHMA.—A spasmodic affection of the Bronchial Tubes, which are covered with a dry tenacious phlegm. Brown's Bronchial Troches will, in some cases, give immediate relief. For Coughs, Colds and Throat Diseases the Troches have proved their efficacy.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation &c, deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and must supercede all other tonics where a healthy gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix rum. For particulars see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U S Stamp unmutilated over the cork with plantation scene and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein whether called Plantation Bitters or not is a criminal under the U S Law and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles &c, who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants &c. is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who try counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

STOP THAT COUGHING

SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefitted by the surprising curative powers of

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it.

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste, soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects, entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

The Maiden's Sacrifice

A SKETCH OF THE WAR

During the first year of the rebellion the sufferings of the Unionists of Tennessee was much greater than many people living in peace at the North supposed

Among the many helpless victims of treason and rebellion which swept like a tornado over the South was a man far advanced in years by the name of Henry Clinton He was the possessor of a fine plantation well stocked with slaves A kind and considerate master he loved the Union and the Constitution much better than slavery and treason—therefore on the moment of the breaking out of the civil war he became a determined advocate of the Union cause and most bitterly denounced rebels and traitors

The old man had a fine boy of seventeen, who was conscripted into the rebel ranks to serve against the flag of his country A beautiful and accomplished daughter yet remained to comfort the old man in his old age Though scarce sixteen she was a great comfort and helped her parent to keep alive the sentiment of liberty and freedom which burned in his breast

"Let the cowards do their worst! Let them burn and destroy! God is on the side of freedom and we will be upheld by His sustaining grace!" said the brave girl to her father a short time after her brother Frank had been forcibly taken from his home

"You are, indeed, a brave girl Fanny and well worthy to bear the name of Clinton I am sure God will not allow the friends of the Union to perish I look to Him and my mind is set at rest" answered the father

"Father I wish to ask you something which gives me great uneasiness"

"Speak on my child"

"Has not Colonel Jennings been to see you of late? I think I have seen him going to and from our house recently"

"Yes the rebel colonel was here yesterday, and I expect him again to-day"

The old man's brow clouded as he said this, it was evident the subject pained him

"May I ask the reason of his visits, for I would know if any new danger awaits us?" inquired the young maiden, noticing the pained look of her father

"Well my child, I think that it were better you should know the truth at once. You must be aware that it has been through the intervention of the rebel colonel that I have remained unmolested thus long I am well known throughout this region as an earnest Unionist and many times has my life been threatened yet Colonel Jennings has interposed his arm to protect me from the hands of the rabble"

"But why should this rebel thus befriend you?"

"Can you not guess?"

"Indeed I cannot"

"Then I will tell you Colonel Jennings has taken a fancy to you, my girl and for that reason he seeks to save me from the hands of the mob."

"He cannot possibly think——"

"He hopes to make you, the daughter of a Unionist, the wife of himself, a rebel and traitor," cried the old man, with a bitter intonation

"I will perish first!" cried Fanny, with an emphatic stamp of her tiny foot

"But think of the consequences," said Clinton "Your brother has been caught in an attempt to desert from the army, and is now under sentence of death for that act. Colonel Jennings says that if you will marry him, my son shall be set free, and at liberty to return home where he will be protected from outrage I do not ask you to do this, Fanny, but it is the only plan to save Frank from an ignominious death. I beg of you to consider ere you announce your final decision"

"Oh, God! can this be true? Frank so near to death and no other way to save him! But this thing must not be! Listen, my father I will go down to the rebel camp myself, and seek an interview with the Colonel I will use every means in my power to induce him to liberate Frank If the heart of a man beats in his bosom, he will not deny my suit!"

"It is useless, I fear, yet I will not attempt to dissuade you from the trial," said the old man, looking with pride upon the determined face of his brave and patriotic daughter.

The rebel colonel, Jennings, was seated in a room of one of the houses which he had taken for his headquarters. He was a tall, finely proportioned man, some thirty years of age. His face was finely molded, yet of a type more of the animal than the intellectual man

At the present time he had just come from his dinner, and felt unusually good natured.

One of the lieutenants announced that a lady desired an interview with the colonel.

"Who the deuce is she?" queried the colonel

"Don't know her," said the officer, "but shall I send her in?"

"Yes; I'll see her, at all events, let her be who she will,"

A few moments after, Fanny Clinton stood in the presence of the rebel commandant. She trembled perceptibly as she threw back her veil, revealing a sweet, pale, but determined face.

"Be seated, Miss Clinton," said the colonel, bowing "You honor me exceedingly, Miss, in paying me a visit I hope your father is well?"

"He is, sir," replied the maiden, in answer to the last part of the colonel's speech, "yet I fear he will never live to see his home and family destroyed."

"He need not fear that," smilingly replied the officer.

"Colonel Jennings!" cried Fanny Clinton, in a voice which trembled with fearful anxiety, "I am here to plead for the life of my only brother, who, I learn, is condemned for the crime of desertion. You are well aware that my brother was forced into the rebel ranks against his wishes, and in his attempt to escape he only followed the promptings of his own convictions He is loyal to the Old Flag, and, such being the case, it would be downright murder to hang him for loyalty to the land of his birth I am aware of the conditions proffered to my father by you, but such conditions would be worse than death to me, and to my friends I cannot comply with them; yet, if you look upon this in the light of a man, you will release my brother, and withdraw your obnoxious offer!"

Fanny sank into a seat, and gazed imploringly upon the smiling face of the rebel

"My dear, I cannot comply with your request Your brother is a deserter, and a traitor to the State, he must die, unless you become my wife"

"I cannot, oh, sir, did you but know how impossible it is"

"Stop, girl, I'll hear no more; promise to be my wife, or your traitor brother dies ere the sun goes down Remember!"

"Cannot, will not your heart tell you of the wrong you commit."

"Leave me lady, your brother dies to-night Go, but remember, when you hear the sound of the guns, your brother has passed into eternity"

"My God, I will accept if you save my brother, he must not die," and with a quick gasp, the maiden fainted upon the floor.

A small company were gathered in one of the rooms in the Clinton mansion, which was brilliantly lighted On this night Fanny Clinton was to become the bride of the rebel Colonel Jennings Faint scarcely able to stand, the young girl suffered herself to be led to the sacrifice Frank had been released, and was now among the guests Uneasy glances were passed upon him by the rebel assembly as if they feared him, now he had regained his freedom He quietly left the house when no one saw him, and mounting one of the fleetest steeds he rode rapidly away

"My sister shall not do this for me," he muttered, as he sped onward,

An hour after, Fanny stood at the side of the Colonel, while a clergyman, the chaplain of the Colonel's regiment, commenced the marriage ceremony. The silence of death reigned over the assembly, when the man of God gazed over the throng and said

"Are there any here who know of any reason why these two shall not be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony let him now speak or ever after hold his peace"

A few moments of dead silence reigned and the minister was about to proceed when a loud clatter of horses feet and the jingle of accouterments sounded without and in the next moment armed men appeared in the doorway

"By Heaven, what means this?" cried Colonel Jennings paleing and starting back a step while the face of the bride brightened and a cry of joy escaped her as she saw that the new comers wore the Union blue

"It means that you and every person here are prisoners of the United States" said a young man wearing the straps of a captain of dragoons

"How dare you dastards"

"Hold!" interrupted the young officer "The army of the Union have taken possession of the town your regiment are prisoners in our hands and the flag of the Union waves triumphant over this whole region of country Do you surrender Colonel?"

No other alternative remained, and the Colonel was marched off a prisoner while Fanny and her father were joyfully embraced by Frank who as our readers have probably guessed was the means of bringing this troop of Union soldiers to the hall He had suspected that the Yankees were somewhere in the vicinity and the moment he was unobserved by the rebel's eyes he hastened after help As luck of Providence would have it he met Captain Ellins with twenty men on a scout The moment they learned the condition of affairs, they hastened to the rescue, and arrived as we have seen

The Clinton family went north soon after and remained until the close of the war, when as perhaps my reader has foreseen Fanny Clinton became the happy bride of Captain Ellins who was the means of saving her from a terrible fate

An Answer to the Randall Feeler.—In Connecticut the Postmaster at New Canaan sent to Washington the following answer to the Randall feeler with regard to the Philadelphia Convention

Post Office New Canaan Fairfield County (Conn) August 6 1866

Hon Alexander W Randall—Sir Your circular for the call of the Wilkes Booth Convention to meet in Philadelphia on the 14th inst has been duly received, under the frank of the eminent Pennsylvania Senator I suppose I am indebted to the honorable Connecticut renegade for this early smoking out attention For this mark of extreme kindness he and you have my thanks Most of the apparent purposes of the call meet my entire approval but chaff is at a discount just now

No man unwilling to be deceived can mistake the patent object of the intended gathering rising as it does from the ashes of the assassin Had Wilkes Booth never lived the Convention would never have been called. Now every sympathizing friend of his foul deed from Maine to California indorse it Every indulgent conciliatory advocate of the interesting ceremony of bullying, bludgeoning and murdering public men (who advocate the rights of men) approve it!

Every patriotic resolver 'that the war for the Union is a failure' is in ecstasies over it? Every bitter Secessionist every fighting rebel in the terrible war that has cost this nation hundreds of thousands of lives and billions of money every conniving traitor that has been struggling to tear down the Government that Washington planted and Lincoln saved singing peans of glory to it And every press in the entire United States now advocating it is obliged to excuse, palliate and defend the burnings, murders and massacres continually cropping out throughout volcanic rebeldom From all such sympathies tendencies and operations, Mr Randall I would most respectfully respond 'Good Lord deliver me' My conscience my manhood is my own, to me they are of more value than any office on earth You have my answer Briefly yours

NOAH W HOYT, Postmaster

P S—Private—If our noble, sober patriotic honorable and trustworthy President would but pardon Jeff in time to make him President of the Convention he would add another to the many grateful obligations he has already conferred upon the millions of loyal hearts who took him out of the grasp of the rebels and elevated him to the point where Booth and Atzeroth swung him to power and infamy N W H.

Lost Arts.—In regard to colors, we are far behind the ancients None of the colors in the Egyptian paintings of thousands of years ago are in the least faded, except the green The Tyrian purple of the entombed city of Pompeii is as fresh to-day as it was three thousand years ago Some of the stucco, painted ages before the Christian era, broken up and mixed reveals its original lustre And yet we pity the ignorance of the dark skinned children of ancient Egypt The colors upon the walls of Nero's festal vault are as fresh as if painted yesterday So is the cheek of the Egyptian prince who was cotemporaneous with Solomon, and Cleopatra, at whose feet Cæsar laid the riches of his empire

And in regard to metals The edges of the statues of the obelisks of Egypt, and of the ancient walls of Rome, are as sharp as if but hewn yesterday And the stones still remain so closely fitted that their seams laid with mortar cannot be penetrated with the edge of a penknife And their surface is exceedingly hard—so hard that when the French artists engraved two lines upon an obelisk brought from Egypt they destroyed, in the tedious task, many of the best tools which could be manufactured. And yet these ancient monuments are traced all over with inscriptions placed upon them in olden time This, with other facts of a striking character, proves that they were far more skilled in metals than we are Quite recently it is recorded that, when an American vessel was on the shores of Africa, a son of that benighted region made, from an iron hoop, a knife superior to any on board of the vessel, and another made a sword of Damascus excellence from a piece of iron

Fiction is very old Scott had his counterparts 2,000 years ago A story is told of a warrior who had no time to wait for the proper forging of his weapon, but seized it red hot, rode forward, but found to his surprise that the cold air had tempered his iron into an excellent steel weapon The tempering of steel, therefore which was new to us a century since, was old 2,000 years ago

Ventilation is deemed a very modern art But this is not a fact, for apertures, unquestionably made for the purpose of ventilation, are found in the pyramid tombs of Egypt Yes, thousands of years ago, the barbarous pagans went so far as to ventilate their tombs, while we yet scarcely know how to ventilate our houses

Catharine Creek.—This Creek is known to overland emigrants as 'Castle Creek' It heads in the mountains east of here and empties into Snake River During the present year considerable land has been claimed and cultivated Isaac Jennings has the largest lot under improvement We are the recipients of specimens of corn and beets grown upon his farm since the last of May The ears of corn are equal in size and quality to any we have ever seen or tasted Some of them were over ten inches in length, well filled, and matured sufficiently to make excellent roasting or boiling corn The beets are large, of tender growth and splendid for table use. Mr J has ten acres of corn, and quite an extent in other vegetables, including melons, which he expects will soon be ready for market From the absolute evidence we have seen of the varied productiveness of Idaho valleys, we are satisfied that ere two years more, we will produce every farm product and supply the Territory, except wheat, and Boise valley is doing much in this respect The crickets are the greatest drawback, and it is expected that they will be out-generaled There is much tillable soil on Catharine Creek, and several large ranches are being prepared for crops next year We extend thanks for the vegetables and especially for the information —Owyhee Avalanche

Advertising a Lost Wife.—Jeremiah Price advertises his domestic difficulties in the Grand Rapids Eagle as follows

Left this city on the 10th July, supposed to have crossed Lake Michigan, Mrs Louisa Price The following is the description of the missing one A handsome woman, about 25 years of age upper teeth false, black hair and blue eyes, fine figure and well developed, walks erect, Any information of her whereabouts will be rewarded and should this meet the eye of the absent she is informed that she will be welcomed back to her home JEREMIAH PRICE

Rather Rich.—The Nevada Gazette (Copper Johnson) of September 6th, alluding to the President's rough time at Cleveland, Ohio, gives expression to the following

The President was interrupted by the shouting and hooting of a party of radical roughs while addressing the citizens of Cleveland Ohio, on Monday evening last, but at the conclusion of his speech the clamor of the Congressional strikers was completely drowned by the shouts of applause with which it was received by the Postmasters and others that had come there for that purpose

Appointments by the President.—The President made the following appointments August 14th Lafayette Caster, Surveyor of Land for the Territory of Idaho C S Eyster, of Colorado Associate Justice of the Supreme Court for the Territory of Colorado Richard H Jackson, Attorney for the Territory of New Mexico Judge Edmonds late Commissioner of the General Land Office, has been appointed to be Postmaster of the Senate, vice Gorman removed The President has appointed Gorman to another office since his dismissal from the service of the Senate

One of the President's Affinities.—Dr J C Calhoun Blackburn, the surgeon who attempted to introduce small pox into the North in infected clothing during the war has written a letter in which he declares himself a rebel in every acceptation of the term laments his compulsory exile and closes by saying if President Johnson be sustained I expect to live and be buried in the United States

Gen Palmer to Remain in Service.—It has been already announced that the Secretary of War had accepted the resignation of General Palmer but it appears he has reconsidered his action and decided to retain him in the service for the present Gen Palmer left Washington August 14th for Tennessee to serve on a court martial ordered for the trial of Col Holland

A Democrat in Tennessee stole a horse from a negro, was convicted on the testimony of negroes and sentenced to the State Prison for the larceny A Democratic paper out West bewails the event as a proof that the country is going to rack and ruin Why? Because Democrats can't steal horses from negroes with impunity, as they could in the good old times that are gone!

Notable Death.—Mrs John C Calhoun wife of the great South Carolinian, died at Pendleton, in that State, on the 25th of July last

A Retrospective View of Montana.—Montana three short years ago comprised an insignificant corner of what was at that time known as the mining region of Idaho Bannack City was called East Bannack from the fact that there were two towns of that name in Idaho Territory The placer mines on the Beaverhead afforded the only mineral resources of that vast body of country lying eastward of what is known as the Salmon River and Boise regions which were located in the spurs of the Blue Mountain range Since that time however the rich placers of Alder have been discovered and it has been ascertained as the necessities of the residents demanded that the waters of the Missouri were, during the year, for all practicable purposes of transportation In a short time after the discovery of the rich mines on Alder gulch, Last Chance, followed by numerous other gulches and creeks sent in their respective representatives claiming that a separate territorial organization should be formed wherein immediate action was taken and a Territory formed and called Montana What a contrast in so short a space of time! The country which was but three years ago, known and marked on the maps of the West as only unexplored Indian territory—supposed to be comprised of rugged mountains and vast desert wastes—to day stands unrivalled either in agricultural or mineral wealth Who that has watched the progress of this young Territory for the past few years can doubt but that ere another year has ended she will occupy an enviable position in the sisterhood of States

However there is a possibility of the progress and prosperity of Montana being checked by the passage of laws by Congress, which will materially affect the working of her mines such as the bill passed at the last session regarding the location, working and titles to quartz property Should Senator Sherman succeed in getting his mining bill through we may wait for centuries to see what we should have seen under a liberal law for the development of our mineral resources

Yet, looking at the past, and judging of the future accordingly, the embarrassments must be very great which will prevent Montana with her vast mineral deposits, fertile valleys and other sources of internal wealth from rivaling any or all of the territories or States of the North western continent.—Montana Post

A Wonderful Congressman.—The Treasurer of the United States recently received the following letter

Wheeling (Va), August 2 1866

F E Spinner, Treasurer of the United States—Sir Inclosed please find your draft, No 4,068 on the Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New York, payable to my order for $2,691 66 sent me by N G Ordway Sergeant at Arms, as the net amount of my increased salary from March 4, 1865, to August 4, 1866 which I herewith return to the Treasury of the United States.

I voted for the Appropriation bill, not for my own benefit, but because it made some provision for the earlier soldiers of the republic who had not received equal bounty with those who went later to the field and at the same time gave assurance that in any future exigency which may arise the men who rally first to the defense of the flag will not be neglected in the after legislation of the country I therefore return the draft to the Treasury Very respectfully

C D HUBBARD

An Imperial Johnson.—A Vienna correspondent writes that a speedy change both of men and system is necessary for the state of public feeling becomes more and more unsatisfactory With my own eyes I have not seen the Emperor insulted while driving in the suburbs but I am told that his carriage has more than once been followed by women who have loudly asked what has become of their absent husbands, brothers and sons

Prominent New Orleans Unionists including a Union Major General, in private dispatches to friends in the East say that not half the atrocities committed by the rebels have been told in the newspaper accounts of the riots In the suburbs and away from the police, who were congregated in the central part of the city, the negroes were butchered remorselessly by the rebel mob

SOMETHING NEW!
THE NEW LIGHT!
DANFORD'S
Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIversal necessity A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps, it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp for one third the cost It will burn when turned down to a taper-light ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufresne, corner of Morrison and First streets

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE,
NEW REMEDIES, AND WHEREFORE
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from disease absorbed into the system Look at their pallid and bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of married life or the enjoyment of life In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents and guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible life-destroying maladies and see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late, by sending them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important for those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing that they in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing on the public by using the names of eminent physicians in Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse or solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs, consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will forfeit Five Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating their symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars, sent in a registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co
